

Registration of Documents

Software for Registration of Documents has been developed with aim to Register all the documents through computer and initiate auto mutation in the software of Computerization of Land Records to avoid data entry of these mutations. This software also takes care of auto generation of all the Reports including MIS reports, easy retrieval of registered documents, provided complete manageability, Integration with Computerization of Land Records. Moreover, this software is web base thus all the information may available over the internet.

The software has been developed by the Microsoft and its testing is being done by the technical and which is in team is in progress. So far three builds have been released by the Microsoft.